

GLOBAL PRICING FORUM: 23 SEPTEMBER 2010, SINGAPORE

On Thursday 23 September, Thomson Reuters is holding 'The Global Pricing Forum', an early evening forum which will bring together a distinguished array of keynote speakers and panellists to address some of the most significant issues faced by financial institutions in the evaluation of their fixed income and derivative holdings.

5:00pm Registration and welcome

5:30pm Keynote address: Outlook for the Economy 2011

PK Basu, Managing Director and Chief Economist, Asia ex-Japan, Daiwa Capital Markets

6:00pm Panel discussion: European Sovereign Debt Crisis and the Uncertainties in Asia's Economy

- What are Asia's real exposures?
- Are there more problems ahead for highly rated European debt?
- European stress tests: would banks have survived a sovereign default?
- Opportunities for Asia?

Panellists

James Mudie, co-Founder BillaRook

Thomas Lam, Group Chief Economist, OSK-DMG, Singapore

Kim Eng Tan, Director, Sovereign and International Public Finance Ratings, Standard and Poor's

Malcolm Oldham, Head of Evaluated Pricing, EMEA, Thomson Reuters

6:40pm Closing address followed by drinks reception

REGISTER NOW

Venue

Thomson Reuters Auditorium

Level 28 North Tower

Raffles Quay

Singapore 048583.

Back